MR. JOSEPH COURTEAU

We, the Class of 1958, wish to dedicate this book to Mr. Courteau in appreciation for the friendliness and understanding which he shared with us during our four years in high school.

We all remember the guidance and leadership which he gave us during our high school years. The boys remember his hard, untiring work with the track team. During his four years here, he has brought the team up to the high level at which it now stands. The girls remember the various types of work which he has helped them obtain both inside and outside of school. He has assisted us both individually and as a class in many of our class projects and activities.

We shall all remember the sincere friendship and understanding which has existed and which always will exist between us.

MR. ERNEST BLAKE

We, the Class of 1958, wish to dedicate this book to Mr. Blake in appreciation for the understanding and help which he has given us during our four years of high school.

He has always been very interested in all our activities. He was most generous with his time two years ago when he helped us with our Sophomore Hop and sophomore play. It was due to his interest, enthusiasm, and unselfish devotion of time and patience in directing and staging our senior play that it was such a success.

We are very grateful to him also for his invaluable guidance both in and outside of class. We shall always remember that we owe him a great deal for the high standard of scholarship and character which he has set for us.

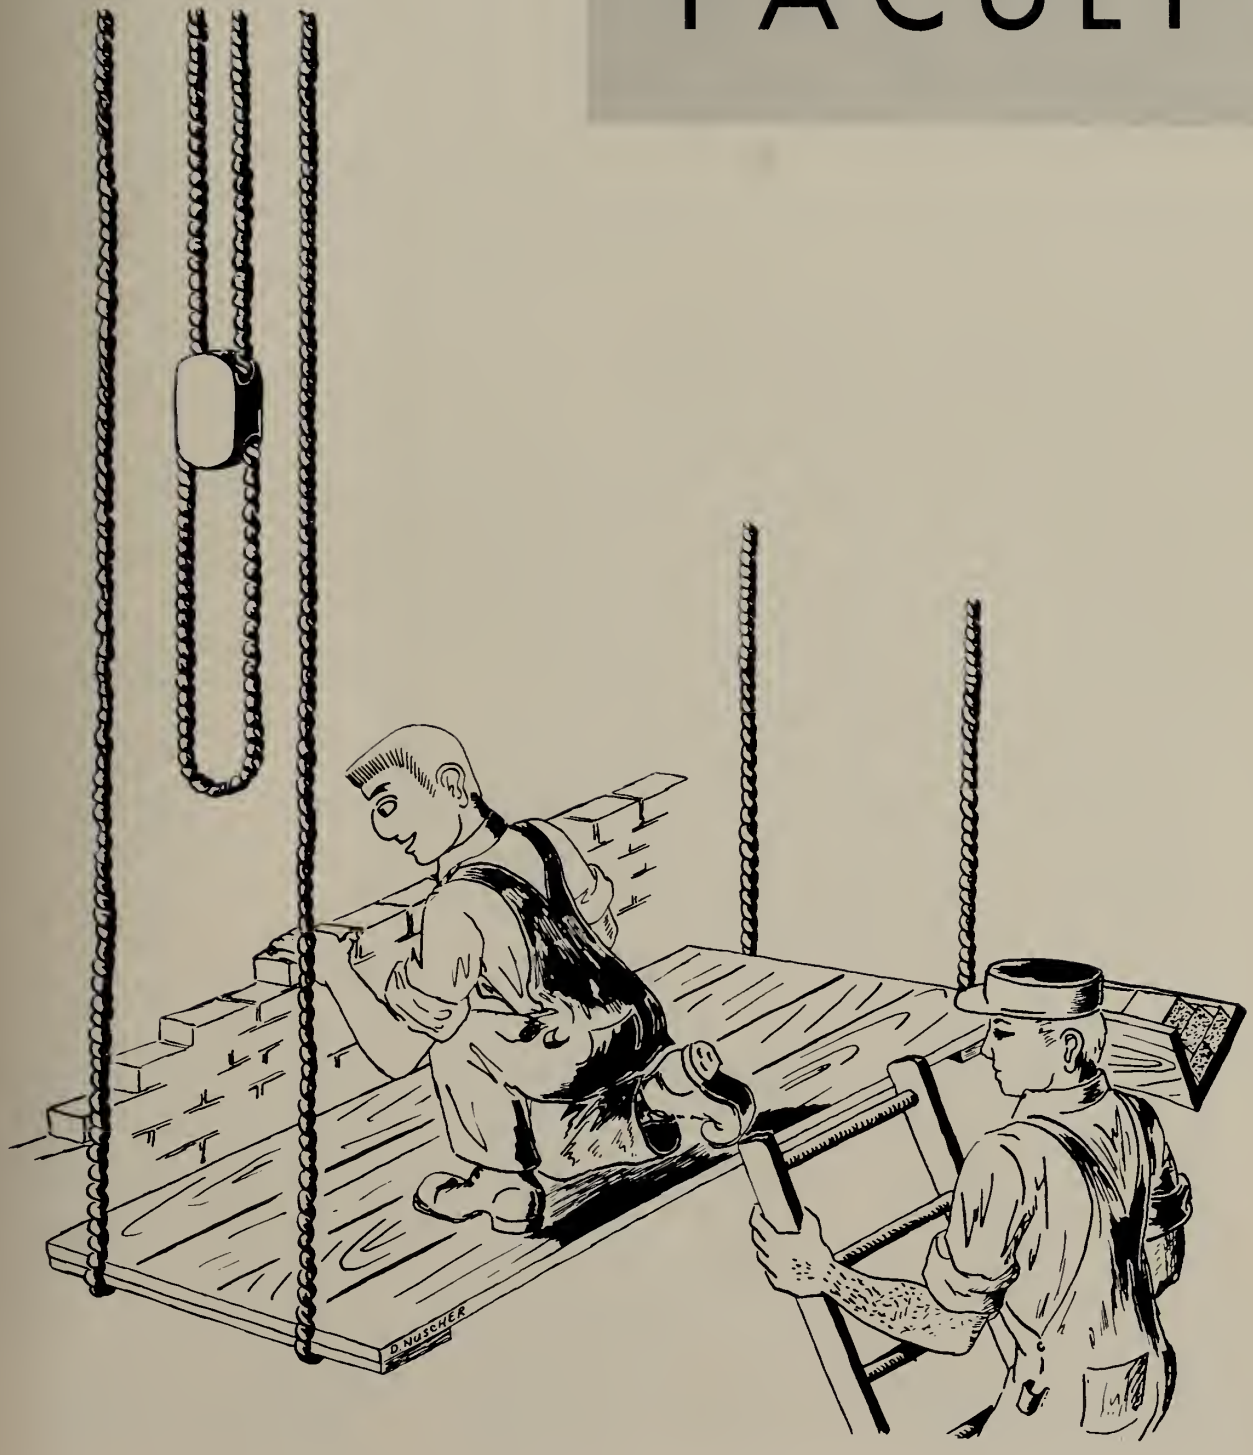
FOREWORD

As we look around us this year, we are able to see the final construction of the new Sharon High School from which we, the Class of 1958, shall be the first to be graduated. The laying of brick on brick and block on block is the process which results in a sturdy, modern school. This same process goes on within the school to build educated, tolerant, well-developed minds. As we have watched this building grow during the period of construction, we have been more aware than usual of the similarity between the learning process and the construction of a building. In education as in a building, a solid foundation is essential. One cannot add the bricks of advanced study unless he has the bricks of elementary study upon which to lay them. For this reason we have chosen "Building Blocks" as the theme of our yearbook.

The citizens of Sharon have provided us with an impressive and functional building which gives us all the space and facilities which we need. We greatly appreciate their generosity. However, it is not the structure which we shall think of most often; it is the school within this structure. Here, in this school, and with these effective tools, our knowledge has been built.

Sharon High School has provided us a firm foundation of ideals, attitudes, and scholarship upon which we shall lay with confidence the building block of the superstructure — our future.

FACULTY



OUR FACULTY

In this day of criticism of academic accomplishments let us, the Class of 1958, consider what our years in Sharon High School have meant to us. We have studied in our classes; but more than subjects, we have learned the methods and the habits which are the tools that we will use for the rest of our lives. To our teachers and the administration let us give the appreciation due their patience and understanding.

Having obtained a sound education upon which to build our destiny, we can now, as we look back, appreciate the efforts of our faculty. Each of them will remain in our memories for many years.

MR. ARNOLD BARTLETT
Principal

We, the Class of 1958, would like to express our gratitude to our principal, Mr. Bartlett.

In the three years that he has been with us, he has worked untiringly for our good, setting for us a goal of high scholastic achievement and high standards of conduct. Interested in our problems, both as individuals and as a class, he has always been more than just our principal; he has been our friend.

CLASS OF

Underclassmen Profit By Increased Facilities

After having been subjected to the utter confusion of a maze of unfamiliar corridors, new schedules, and general chaos of incompleted rooms for several weeks in the still unfinished building, the students of Sharon High School have finally become accustomed to their new school.

This beautiful new building offers more opportunities for the students than they ever had before. The extra-large gymnasium makes it possible for more students to take part in a wider variety of sports. More facilities make possible a larger number of activities.

The broadened activity program will widen greatly the horizon of the students of Sharon High School.

The theme of the Juniors' forthcoming prom, "Blanche et Noire," was typical of the originality of the Junior Class. This dance, under the fine organization of the class of 1959, was a complete success.

The Juniors show their loyal school spirit by their ardent enthusiasm for all school sports and their whole-hearted participation in all school activities.

As the class has excelled scholastically, their representation on the Honor Roll will be hard to beat.

With this fine record, the Juniors promise to make an outstanding Senior Class.

The Class of 1960 has done exceptionally well in living up to the high expectations predicted for it in last years' yearbook. Its members have participated enthusiastically in a wide variety of activities as well as acquired an excellent foundation scholastically. Their artistic abilities have been demonstrated in the very attractive decorations for their freshman dance, "Carousel," and their Sophomore Hop, "Deep Purple." There are many athletic members of the class as indicated by the unusual number of them who have made the varsity basketball teams boys' and girls'.

Next year Sharon High School will have a junior class to be looked up to, because, if it makes use of its potential ability, the class will be outstanding.

By the size of this year's freshman class, it looks as if the new high school was not completed any too soon. It is the largest class ever to enter Sharon High School and, consequently, has made itself conspicuous by its numbers as well as its accomplishments in academic subjects, sports, and numerous activities. Many members of the class were on the junior varsity basketball squad; many participated in the band and Glee Club, and this class has had a large percent of its members on the honor roll through the year.

We are sure that the Class of 1961 has the makings of an outstanding Sophomore Class and that it will contribute much to the school.

Eleven New Members Tapped For Honor Society

Membership in the National Honor Society is limited to the junior and senior classes. Each year 5% of the junior class and 10% of the senior class are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service to be members of this nationally established organization. The competition is so great that only those students who are outstanding in these qualities are awarded the honor.

On February 7, 1958, Barbara Hixson, who transferred from Dorchester High School, Carol Hunnewell, Mary Richardson, Wilfred Kingsley, and Richard Nuscher, members of the society who were elected last year, performed the traditional tapping ceremony. Those selected from the senior class were Dorothy Manzer, Dena Uretsky, John Hawkins, Joseph Graham, Martin Gross, Edward Klein, and Arnold Shuman. Barbara Burch, Katherine Cilley, Peter Roman, and Bertram Sacks were tapped from the junior class.

As we go to press, the members are planning their induction ceremony at which the candles representing character, scholarship, leadership, and service are lighted. The members of this highly selective organization faithfully strive to live up to the honors and responsibilities bestowed on them.

Student Council Sponsors New Scholarship

This year's Student Council has the smallest membership in many years because this is the first year that the senior and junior high schools have had separate Councils. Every class in the senior high school is represented in this nineteen-member organization.

Once again this year, the group has sold candy at the basketball games, run the supply room, conducted the Christmas Drawing Contest, and issued honor study hall passes. In addition to these many activities, the Council has formed an assembly committee. This group arranges the school assembly schedule.

The largest project for the group this year is sponsoring a scholarship for a deserving senior. The Council is running a dance to earn money for this project, and other school activities are joining them in this worthy undertaking.

Under the fine leadership of their president, Bert Sacks, and with the careful guidance of their advisor, Mr. Benoit, the Student Council is continuing to improve the character, scholarship, leadership, and service of the students of Sharon High School.

Girls Undertake New Projects

The Girls' Varsity Club, first organized in 1952, is one of the most active organizations in the school. The club, started for the purpose of promoting good sportsmanship and school spirit, has assisted in the development of a broad sports program in Sharon High School.

Under the guidance of their advisor, Miss Marion Haley, the girls undertake many worth-while projects. Two of the projects taken on this year by the club were the sale of sweatshirts bearing the school seal, and the sale of ice cream and potato chips at the home basketball games. The girls held one of their annual car washes last fall and, as we go to press, are planning another one in the spring. The traditional blazers, given to the senior members of the club, are being awarded early this year so that they may have them to wear while they are still in school.

The Girls' Varsity Club is and will continue to be an important asset in Sharon High School.

Boys Sponsor Many Worthwhile Activities

1:15 P.M. on Thursdays finds Mr. Gary Hall, advisor, rounding up the stragglers as Don Dunakin, president, calls the Boys' Varsity Club to order in room 301.

This organization is one of the most active and worthwhile clubs in the school. Its goal is to help the school in every way it can. The club has sought to achieve this goal by sponsoring intramurals, busses to basketball games, the sale of coke and programs at home basketball games, a pep rally, and a talent show. Through activities, such as food sales and dances, it raises money to buy new sports squipment for the school and jackets for its senior members.

Each year the Boys' and Girls' Varsity Clubs work together to plan and run the annual Field Day, which is the climax of the year's athletic program. At the dance which follows, a trophy is given to the class which scores the highest number of points during the day. At Class Day in June, the club also presents a trophy to the outstanding senior athlete in its membership.

The club can be justly proud of its many services to the school.

Seniors Present "THE CURIOUS SAVAGE"

As curtain time drew nearer and nearer, the seniors, walking nervously around the huge stage in the new high school auditorium, grew more and more apprehensive. The terrible monster called the audience was growing to gigantic proportions. Then, the curtains parted; and, with a wonderful hand for a magnificent set, "The Curious Savage" by John Patrick was underway. Due in part to the acting of the seniors and in part to the efforts of the hardworking and excellent director, Mr. Blake, assisted by student director, Susan Callan, the play was more nearly professional than any Sharon High School has produced for many years. The interpretation of the inmates in a mental sanitarium was both mature and sympathetic, indicating long weeks of serious study on the part of both director and cast. As the very first production in the brand new auditorium, "The Curious Savage," presented on January 18, 1958, augured well for the future performances of Sharon High School.

Club Enters "THE SCARECROW"

In Massachusetts Drama Festival

The Dramatics Club is a fairly new addition to Sharon High School's extra-curricular program. Since its organization in the last part of the 1955-56 school year, it has made considerable progress under the direction of Mr. Ernest Blake. As we go to press, the club plans this year to go to the Massachusetts Drama Festival where they will enter a fantasy called, "The Scarecrow."

The membership has varied from as low as forty to as high as ninety students. The purpose of the club is to encourage anyone's interest in any phase of dramatics. There is a job for the person interested in art or settings, make-up or acting. And to give experience to those interested in directing, student directors are selected by Mr. Blake to have complete charge of individual plays. The club not only presents plays which are copyrighted, but they often make dramatic adaptations of poems and other literature. The new auditorium and all the new equipment will be a great asset to the group.

In the near future, the club hopes to become affiliated with the National Thespians Society. This very active group has the interest and support of the entire student body in all of its many undertakings.

Audio-Visual Aids Club Films School Activities

This year, under the capable direction of Mr. Billings, their advisor, the Audio-Visual Aids Club has been busier than ever with its increased duties, for the new equipment in the school constantly calls for skilled operators. In addition to all the school machines which are run by the staff members as in the past, there is also the console in the main office, which they assist the office personnel in running.

As a special project the staff has bought a moving picture camera for the school with which they are taking pictures of the various school activities. As we go to press, they plan to incorporate these films into an assembly program.

To earn money for this and other projects, the club has run a series of carefully selected movies which have been well supported by the student body.

With John Hatch as president of the club for the second year, they have worked hard for the good of Sharon High School.

"Eagle" Adds New Attraction

This has been, without doubt, the most successful and productive year that the "Eagle" has had. Under the leadership of co-editors Arnold Shuman and Peter Roman, the staff has produced the largest paper to date. Also they have had the satisfaction, this year, of putting out the first printed newspaper, the fine quality of which is a credit to the staff and to Mr. Roman, their advisor. They hope to be able to continue to have the paper printed.

Several new columns, such as the Top Ten record poll, have been added to the paper this year; and the editorials have been very meaningful. We are sure that the "Eagle", which performs a very important function in the school, will continue to expand as the school itself grows. The staff can be very proud of its accomplishments this year.

Debating Club Gains In Popularity

The Debating Club, which is now in its second year, has become a permanent part of our school's activity program. It has debated a wide variety of subjects, from such topics as our point system to the United Nations. It has had several debates in assembly which have been judged by teachers and other qualified persons. This past fall, the club visited Brown University to observe, first hand, the college's debating team in action.

Before a team attempts a debate, whether at their regular meetings or in an assembly, a complete and accurate research job is done by both the affirmative and the negative sides, so that they will have the facts for an instructive debate.

The Club's assembly programs have certainly aroused the interest of the student body, and the members can be proud of their progress, especially this year, under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Coughlin.

Vocal Groups Represented At All-State Festival

The Glee Club is a comparatively small group this year, consisting of about thirty selected voices. The members, chosen by Mrs. Edwards, are the cream of the crop, coming from all four of the high school classes. The group meets for rehearsals twice a week in the new music room. At the request of the recently established assembly program committee, the Glee Club often sings as a part of the opening exercises. The club's most important undertaking is the annual concert in the spring.

The Girls' Chorus, which meets once a week, is larger than the Glee Club, consisting of about thirty-five voices. The chorus sings in assembly, sometimes alone and other times with the Glee Club. Under the direction of Mrs. Edwards, the girls are rapidly gaining experience in harmonizing and group singing. The chorus will join the Glee Club in their annual spring concert as they have in assembly programs.

These music groups are proud to have three of their members — Diana Meister, Cynthia Halkyard, and Donald Dunakin — selected to represent Sharon in the All-State Music Festival chorus. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Edwards, both groups will continue to grow in musical stature and to be an important part of our musical program as they are at present.

F.T.A. Important Addition To Activity Program

In the middle of last year, Mr. Dunn and several students who were interested in the Future Teachers of America went to Norwood where they learned about the Norwood FTA chapter. They were so impressed that, when they returned, they formed a chapter in Sharon.

The FTA is an organization of junior teachers of the National Education Association. The Sharon chapter is named the Anne Sullivan FTA after the famous teacher of Helen Keller. The club now consists of thirty-five students who think that they might be interested in teaching. At their bi-weekly meetings, they have discussions and debates on the techniques of teaching, or they have both students and professors from teachers' colleges as guest speakers. The members of the club have observed the teaching methods in their own elementary grades, and some members have actually taken charge of a group.

As we go to press, plans for the spring are still undecided. Sometime in March they hope to have a program for the PTA and they hope to be able to conduct some high school classes as one member did last year. This club keeps a scrapbook of its activities. As of now, the book is not too large, for the club is only a little more than a year old; but judging from accomplishments of the group so far, this book is sure to become full of worthy accomplishments in the years to come.

Art Club Benefits From New Equipment

Every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday lab period finds the art room alive with activity, for it is at these times that those students who have artistic ability put their talents to use.

With the expert help of Mrs. Dann, these people work on many projects. They made posters to advertise "All My Sons," and painted the sets for the senior play. At Christmas time they attempted abstract art by drawing their impressions of Christmas decorations without making them recognizable as such. By drawing geometric figures, the students obtained more skill in shading and in depth. Also, by working with puppets they learned more about the expression of motion in drawing.

At the beginning of this year, they were very fortunate to have a demonstration in ceramics. They have not done much in this field yet, but they hope to make use of their new potter's wheel and kiln soon.

With their new equipment and variety of projects, the club members have gained invaluable experience in the field of art.

New Instruments Added To Band

As the stirring marches of Sousa fill the auditorium each Friday morning, it becomes evident that the new Sharon High School has a new, bigger, and better school band. This year the band has acquired a flugel horn, a brand new set of pedal timpani, and a complete saxaphone section, not to mention many additions to the already established sections. To match this internal growth, the band has for its use, a brand new music room, complete with practice rooms, offices, instruments cabinets, music cabinets, and sliding blackboards.

The director of the band, Mr. Philip Hoffman, has done much to improve the quality of and to extend the variety of the music played. He has had several pieces composed especially for the school band.

This year one member of the band, Adrian Hoffman, was selected to attend the All-State Music Festival in Springfield. Also for the first time in the band's history, two members were named by Mr. Hoffman as student conductors. They were Edward Klein, tuba player, and Richard Dolph, French horn player. Mr. Hoffman hopes to continue his program to give students a greater working knowledge of music.

Orchestra Enters "Unfinished Symphony" In Mass. Music Festival

Sharon High School is in for a big surprise next year when the orchestra comes out from behind the closed doors where it has been working this year and begins its concerts. This year has been devoted to long and hard rehearsing under the direction of Mr. Philip Hoffman, their director. As an entrant in the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival, they are playing the "Unfinished Symphony" of Schubert, a difficult task for any orchestra.

This year the school was honored to have three members of the group receive outstanding recognition. Edward Klein and Richard Dolph, seniors, and Edward Altshuler, a junior, entered the All-New England Music Festival and Competition at Plainville, Connecticut. Playing cello, French horn, and trumpet respectively, the three boys took the highest honors the festival had to offer, both as individuals and as an ensemble group.

Five members of the orchestra were selected in highly competitive auditions for this year's All-State Music Festival to be held in Springfield. They were Edward Klein, principal cello; Richard Dolph, principal French horn; Edward Altshuler, principal trumpet; Sandra Levine, violin, and Linda McKee, viola.

In a few years the orchestra will undoubtedly become one of the finest high school groups in the area; for the junior high school, sixth grade, and elementary school orchestras are growing tremendously under Mr. Hoffman's expert direction. With wonderful farsightedness, he has changed many of these "drum-desiring" youngsters to hard-working fiddle players. When these young musicians reach high school, Mr. Hoffman's fondest dreams will come true; Sharon High School will have an outstanding orchestra. Good Luck!

Three New Clubs Added To Activity Program

Three clubs which have recently been added to the extracurricular activity program of Sharon High School are the Classical League, the Contract Bridge and Chess Club, and the Creative Writing Club.

The Classical League has been in existence for two years. It consists of ten students who are now taking or have already completed their second year of Latin. Under the leadership of Miss Chase, these people learn more about the Latin language and customs by playing Latin games, having Latin programs, and doing Latin word puzzles. This is a national organization. In May, the members from our school plan to attend the state convention in Norton, Massachusetts.

The Contract Bridge and Chess Club is a group of students who are learning to play these games under the instruction of Mr. Bartlett. At the beginning of the year they learned contract bridge, using the handbook, "The Fundamentals of Contract Bridge," by Charles H. Goren. They are now concentrating on learning to play chess.

As we go to press, the Creative Writing Club is planning a paper, "Panorama," for Sharon High School. It will consist of selected literary compositions from the English classes and the club members. They have chosen this name because it suggests a broad view of the writing efforts of the students. The editor of this paper is David Plichta.

Though these three organizations are still small, their success this year assures a continued growth within the next few years.

Eagles Enjoy New Quarters

As the final buzzer sounds in the new one-hundred-foot-square gym, Sharon players walk off the floor with another victory added to their record. After a slow start in the old gym, the Eagles picked up momentum and at the close of the League season were in fourth place with a record of seven wins and seven losses, having upset two of the top teams, Mansfield and Canton. As we go to press, the club is about to enter the South Shore Tournament, where they will meet Middleboro in the first round.

This year's junior varsity team has a remarkable record of fourteen wins and no losses. With such a team, Sharon is looking forward to a very bright future on the basketball court.

Gladiators Encounter New Teams

This year's basketball team has acquired a new name, the "Gladiators," because of the striking resemblance of the squad's new uniforms to those of the ancient Roman fighters.

After losing the Alumni game by a scant two-point margin, the girls started the regular season with three straight wins, including their first victory over Oliver Ames in three years. Then, however, they ran up against two teams new to the schedule——Westwood, a small, very fast team, and Randolph, a tall, accurately shooting combination——and lost two in a row. Unfortunately, three more hard-fought close contests were dropped after that, but in the next to the last game, Sharon won over Stoughton in a two-minute overtime.

The junior varsity, who has also had a successful season, shows promise of becoming a first-rate varsity team when its members are "drafted" by their coach, Miss Haley.

Cheerleaders Build Team Support

The 1957-1958 cheerleading squad has been working hard to produce variation in everything it does and has succeeded in introducing new routines, several new cheers, and, above all, brand new maroon and gold uniforms with flared skirts.

The girls, under the capable leadership of their captain, Carol Hunnewell, have added color and liveliness to the games, besides promoting better school spirit in assemblies and pep rallies. The girls are also good will ambassadors for Sharon High School as they accompany the team to the schools of the surrounding towns. With the help of the newly organized Pep Squad, they are giving S. H. S. the "Victory Cheer."

We hope that the cheerleaders in the future will continue the fine leadership that the girls now show.

Baseball Team Given Tournament Opportunity

The varsity baseball team of last year had the best pitching strength Sharon High School has had for many years. Under the coaching of Mr. Gary Hall, the team played fourteen League games and rose to fourth place. Because the second and third place winners in the Hockomock League were unable to participate in the state tournament, Sharon had the chance to compete in one of the official playoff games. They put up a good fight but had to take a loss of 1-0.

Though the club lost much of its pitching strength last year, we hope that inexperience will be overcome by a stronger than ever team spirit and intensive preseason training. We are sure that the loyal support of the high school students, which was so evident last year, will continue to encourage the team on to victory.

Softball Becomes Major Spring Sport

Softball has recently become recognized as a major spring sport for the girls. The enlarged interscholastic schedule has proved to be an incentive for them to join the team and to work hard for a good record. As the classes grow larger, the competition for membership on the team will be even greater than at the present time, to the benefit of the team.

Last spring the girls closed the season with a record of two wins and four losses. Although they did not finish on top, they fought hard to win. This spirit resulted in close and very exciting games.

As always the team showed outstanding sportsmanship and enthusiasm which is always present because of the character of the players and the direction of their coach, Miss Haley.

New Team Has Bright Future

This year the Sharon golf team did not play in the Bay State League but continued the program which was initiated last year. Under this schedule the team played matches with surrounding towns and ended the season with an encouraging six wins and one loss.

Although four good players were lost this year, the team has gained Eugene Flynn, Warren Cass, Paul Jones, Clyde Cawley, and James Nugent, who all promise to serve it well.

Last year the boys were under the able direction of Mr. Konsavage, but this year they will be coached by Mr. Downing. Since they will suffer no loss of players this year, they promise to be the most unified and successful team in Sharon's golf history.

Sharon High Builds Strong Track Team

With the words, "On your mark, get set, go!" Sharon's track team is off to what promises to be its best year. This year Coach Courteau hopes to end up on top of the Hockomock League.

Last year, at the Hockomock League Track Meet, Sharon placed third, one point behind second-place North Easton. At this meet Allan Muul won great honor for the team by becoming the Hockomock League champion shot-put thrower.

Coach Courteau is depending on the following athletes to bring Sharon's team to the top in 1958:

100 yards—Carson, Dunakin, Meikle, Muul.
220 yards—Carson, Dunakin, Meikle.
440 yards—Cutler, Kingsley, Murano.
880 yards—Bussewitz, Colon.
Mile—Altshuler, Bussewitz, Steinberg.
Broad Jump—Dunakin, Meikle.
High Jump—Muul, Colon.
Shot-Put—Miller, Muul.

Tennis Added To

The boys' tennis team was started last spring under the direction of Mr. Dunn. The team consisted largely of Freshmen and Sophomores who were inexperienced in league competition. But inexperience did not keep the boys from making an outstanding record for themselves of four wins and one loss. The boys played two matches each with Westwood and Randolph and one match with Stoughton. The team's one loss was to Westwood.

As we go to press, Mr. Dunn expects a larger turnout of boys for the tennis team this spring along with the "old pros" from last year. Once the warm weather comes, you will see the boys practicing at the tennis courts behind the Junior High School, working hard every day to attain the skills necessary for maintaining their record of last year. The team should be better balanced and more experienced this year, and the future looks bright for them. Good luck boys!

Sports Program

The girls' tennis team was first organized in 1957 and was made up chiefly of Sophomores and Juniors. Although the team had had little experience, the competition among the members was excellent. Next year, with an enlarged schedule and more experience, the team should do very well.

The high light of the season was Sharon's placing second in the South Shore Tournament at Silver Lake where Diana Meister won the singles championship.

During the regular season, the scores were as follows:

At Sharon: Sharon 8, Westwood 2.

At Westwood: Sharon 8, Westwood 9.

Mr. Dunn, the coach, did a fine job in getting an inexperienced team into shape, and we wish him and the team the best of luck in the years to come.
